Open Season for Quail.

The open season for quail in this state is from November 1 to December 20, within which time the sportsmen are allowed to shoot them, but no person shall kill more than twelve quail in one day. The fine is not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

Squire Srolowitz's Court.

Mrs. Mary Parks was tried in Squire Srolowitz's court yesterday on a profanity and disorderly charge preferred by Mrs. Margaret Green. The case was a counter charge arising out of a suit brought before Justice Dunning some days ago. The defendant was dismissed.

A warrant was issued for William Dilco by Eugene Thompson, charging him with stealing a suit of clothes belonging to him. Dilco had not yet been arrested last evening and there is no time set for hearing the case.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

Yesterday in Clerk Robertson's office the following were recorded:

Deed, made October 22, 1900; by Anna L. Sage and husband and others to Robert Englehardt; consideration $2,500; transfers lot 6, square A in Jonathan Zane's addition, Main street.

Deed, made October 30, 1900; by L. W. Wilson and wife to J. M. Ollimore; consideration, $1,342 50; transfers part of lot 5 in square 25 in Churchill's addition.

Deed, made November 4, 1895; by Robert H. C. Yahrling and wife to Henry Kilwer; consideration, $2,000; transfers part of lot 15 on Jacob street.

Deed, made October 11, 1900; by G. S. Robinson and wife to Elm Grove Coal Company; consideration $500; transfers coal in 49 acres of land in Triadelphia district.

..POLITICS..

Republicans of foreign birth who have not been admitted to citizenship are requested to notify the county committee-man of their district, or Chairman Hornish, of the committee, who will enlighten all applicants as to the manner of appearing before the circuit judge. This should be done to-day, as Judge Hervey is holding a special term to-day especially for this purpose.

North End Parade.

The fourth and last of the Rough Rider regiment's sectional street demonstrations will occur this evening over the streets of North Wheeling. The companies, all of which are called for the function, will form on Chapline street, South Side, right resting on Twentieth, and the route will be on Twentieth, Market, Eleventh, Main to Jonathan's ravine, countermarch on Main to Fifth, to Market, to Tenth and disband.

In addition to the Rough Rider companies, the Six-Footers, Old Soldiers, Travis Cadets, Elkins Cadets, Washington District Citizens' Club and other local marching organizations will take part, and cordial invitations are extended to the over-the-river clubs. The clubs will rendezvous at 8 o'clock sharp.

As this is the last Republican street demonstration of the campaign in Wheeling, every effort will be made to get out all the clubs.

"Cold Water" Special.

The "cold water" or Prohibition special train, in the Hempfield yards, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, was the platform from which the Prohibition candidate for President spoke to a crowd of about 200 people. The first speaker was Mr. W. A. Brubaker, of Illinois, followed by Colonel Sobieski, of Missouri; West Virginia gubernatorial Candidate Carskadon; Presidential Candidate John G. Woolley and National Chairman Stewart. All the speeches were well received. The train pulled out at the conclusion of the meeting, and its first stop was at Belaire, and later at other points in Ohio.

Wheeling Complimented.

What was wrong with Wheeling's turn-out? The over-the-river city seems to be famous for Rough Riders, and, in most cases, the different companies are well drilled. Hats off to the Wheeling boys!—Martin's Ferry Times.

A Successful Affair.

Last night, at I. O. O. F. hall, 600 people assembled to take part in the first social function under the auspices of the newly organized Second United Presbyterian church. After the supper, there was a piano entertainment, followed by an election for President of the United States, in which Mrs. Catt, the woman suffrage candidate, was the winner, and Mr. Woolley, the Prohibition candidate, was second. More than $200 will be cleared, and it is the first contribution to the new church's building fund.

NO one can reasonably hope for good health unless his bowels move once each day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, biliousness, headache, dyspepsia and piles soon follow. If you wish to avoid these ailments keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by druggists.
